1. Purpose & Background:

Bajaj Holding & Investment Ltd (BHIL) being an equal opportunity employer, is committed to creating a healthy working environment that enables employees to work without fear of prejudice, gender discrimination and harassment. We believe that all employees have the right to be treated with fairness and dignity. Sexual harassment at the work place or other than work place if involving employees is a grave offence and is, therefore, punishable by the law.

The code of conduct policy also holds a zero tolerance stand with regards to any kind of gender discrimination and harassment of employees at the workplace. Creation of a discriminatory work environment is also prohibited by law. By following the procedure set forth below, every employee can seek redressal for their complaints.

2. Scope:

All employees of Bajaj Holding & Investment Ltd (BHIL) are governed under this policy, including trainees, management trainees, apprentices, interns, full time employees both permanent and on probation and temporary employees who are appointed at any office of the company in India and for whom any of the above mentioned companies discharges its role as a 'Principal Employer'. This Policy comes into effect immediately.

Acts of sexual harassment are covered by law under the following sections:

- The Sexual Harassment of Women at Workplace Act (Prevention, Prohibition and Redressal) Act 2013
- IPC Sections 292 294: Obscenity
- IPC Section 354: Criminal Force or Assault Intended to Outrage Modesty
- IPC Section 375: Rape
- IPC Section 509: Word, Gesture or Act Intended to Outrage Modesty
- Protection of Human Rights Act, 1993
- Remedies in Vishaka vs. State of Rajasthan are in addition to IPC. Vishaka requires the employer to give a police complaint where sexual harassment also amounts to an offence.

Note - It shall be the duty of the employer or any other responsible person in work places or other institutions to prevent or detect the commission of acts of sexual harassment by taking all steps required.

3. Definition:

3.1 As prescribed by the 'Act', Sexual harassment includes any one or more of the following unwelcome acts or behaviors (where directly or by implication) namely:
